CHINA HAS
RICH CARCO

ARRIVES THIS MORNING FROM THE ORIENT—HAS SMALL CAR-GO FOR HONOLULU.

The S. S. China arrived early this morning from the Orient with one of the most valuable cargoes in her history. She carries $1,075,000 in gold represented by 2,000,000 yen, 787 cases of opium worth about $250,000 and 2,000 bales of silk worth about $1,200,000.
These comprise the richest part of her consignment.

The vessel had but a small quantity of freight for Honolulu bringing only 481 tons. She brought seventeen cabin passengers for Honolulu some of them being tourists. She has a good sized crowd of through passengers.

The vessel left Yokohama January 30. She experienced fair weather until last night when an electrical storm at times blinded the officer on the bridge.
The vessel arrived off the port shortly after daybreak.

THE VERDICT IS SUSTAINED

JUDGE DE BOLT DENIES MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL OF BERREY CASE.

Judge De Bolt this morning gave a decision denying the motion for a new trial in the case of Mrs. Wilcox vs.
Q. H. Berrey. The jury awarded $157 damages but said in the verdict that it did not think Berrey was guilty of any malicious acts towards the plaintiff, and it was contended that such a verdict was a contradiction. The judge's decision says:

"The general finding for the plaintiff against the defendant legally disposed of the only issue submitted to the jury and left nothing further for them to consider or to decide. The sentence 'but we do not think defendant had any malicious intent' is not a finding of decision but a mere expression of opinion.
The first part of the verdict is a determination,—a conclusion. The latter part determines nothing. It is only what the jury 'think.' It is not a finding."

"The verdict in this case being responsive to the issue, and the 'finding'
part being complete, certain and clear, and the latter part being only surplus-age and not necessarily inconsistent with or contradictory of the general finding it follows that the motion for a new trial should be denied."

In the case of R. W. Broekens and J. J. Dunne vs. William S. Ellis and others, Judge De Bolt granted a continuance for one week. Broekens stated that an offer of settlement had been made and was under consideration. The suit is for $250 for a fee given the defendants in connection with their dealings with John K. Sumner.

Trial of the case of Wong Lup vs.
Wong Kwai was begun before a jury.
F. M. Brooks appears for plaintiff and C. W. Ashford for defendant.
